

INVITATION FOR FUNDING PROPOSALS

The Rand Water Foundation is calling for Non-Governmental Organisations (NGOs) to submit applications for funding. The Foundation was established to undertake Rand Water's Corporate Social Investment Programme. The Foundation recognises the role played by NGOs in uplifting and developing communities through the provision of community development based projects, in particular the most marginalised and the vulnerable.

The Foundation herewith invites NGOs to apply for funding for the provision of the services aligned as follows:

- Water and Sanitation
- Environmental projects
- Education and Training
- Health Including HIV and AIDs
- Women, Youth and Children

Application Requirements: Please attach the following documentation when applying:

- Constitution of the organisation
- Valid NPO registration certificate
- Must be in operation at least for a year
- Complete RWF application form obtainable from the Rand Water offices at the address below.
- Letter of compliance form National Department of Social Development.

How to apply:

Use the application form obtainable from the Rand Water Website (www.randwater.co.za) on the Home page or Rand Water Offices, 522 Impala Road, Glenvista, Johannesburg.
